Dear comrades,

Thank you for your solidarity

I am writing on behalf of the TUC, representing 5.5 million workers, to thank you for your joint support in our fight to protect the right to strike.

The TUC values the relationship of mutual solidarity between ourselves and all the workers of Argentina represented by your three organisations. We appreciate your support for us in our struggle, even as workers in all countries face severe challenges of their own.

The proposed Strikes (Minimum Service Levels) Bill builds on the 2016 Trade Union Act to severely limit the right to strike in the UK. The entire trade union movement is united in its opposition to this attack, and we continue to mobilise in defence of jobs, pay, and conditions.

We know that we will face a long campaign to defeat this legislation. Your support and solidarity will be vital throughout, and we are extremely grateful for the steps you have taken so far.

In solidarity
